EXTRA! EXTRA! READ ALL ABOUT IT!!

Students are working on literature text the last half of the third nine weeks, concentrating on the following:

- Author's purpose
- Character, setting, plot to a story
- Text structure and choice of words from the author/how it affects the meaning of the story
- Using context clues to figure out the meaning of an unfamiliar word.

- Technology in North Carolina and how it has influenced changes in our state
- Advantages and disadvantages of technology in NC

R.O.A.R.

- Our novel for the next few weeks is Hatchet!
- Congratulations to Aubrey, Victoria, and Navi, my spelling bee

In Other News...

I am receipting money for fees first thing each morning. This is $15 and will cover the cost of a science field trip that will happen here in class, as well as Christmas and end of year parties. Please send this in with your student by September 30th. Thanks.
